

Patrol Division

The Patrol Division consist of twenty four officers including supervisors and K9 units. These officers provide pro-active patrol and efficient response to reported incidents, 24-7 within the 11.7 sq miles of the City of Lewisburg. Often thought as the backbone of the department, the patrol division is charged with the protection of life and property through watchful and constant patrol coverage. These officers' dedication and devotion to service and protection of the city's residents is the source of its reputation as a community-oriented organization. The police department has highly competent, trained officers and each officer is well-versed in the city's ordinances, as well as traffic, civil, criminal and state laws.
